

Skelly loses
his bones

One day SKelly was on his way to school.

When he started to lose his bones because he was not eating
healthy. "Yikes!!"

While at school his friend Franky asked him, "Where are your bones?"
Skelly said, "I'm losing them." Oh no!

So his friend, Franky,
went to get him a healthy snack from the school cafeteria.

Franky grabbed him some broccoli and some string cheese. "Mmm... mighty tasty," answered Skelly.

"Time to go find the rest of your bones," Franky told Skelly.

So together they went off to gather all of skelly.

And once again Skelly was mighty strong, ~~and~~ healthy, and happy!

The End.
