INITIATIVES

The employment unit engaged in the following broad outreach initiatives in accordance with various elements of FCC Rule 73.2080(c)(2):

Participated in at least 4 events sponsored by organizations representing groups present in the community interested in broadcast employment issues, including conventions, career days, workshops, and similar activities.

- Ongoing | Arizona PBS participated in workforce development outreach through its involvement in the American Graduate: Jobs Explained initiative. As a recipient of grant funding for this program, Arizona PBS developed and distributed career exploration videos highlighting employment opportunities and workforce pathways in high-demand fields, including construction, healthcare, and technology. The initiative engaged community organizations, educators, students, and job seekers by providing information about career preparation, skills development, and employment opportunities. Through this workforce-focused outreach effort, Arizona PBS supported public awareness of career opportunities and workforce development issues affecting the communities it serves.
- 1/20/26 | Arizona PBS participated in the Arizona Cardinals Civic Matters event through its American Graduate: Jobs Explained initiative, engaging middle school and high school students in career exploration and workforce readiness by providing information about educational and career pathways, including opportunities related to media, technology, and other high-demand industries.
- 3/4/26 | Arizona PBS participated in the Building Arizona’s Workforce event in partnership with Arizona Town Hall, which brought together educators, workforce development professionals, community leaders, and industry representatives to discuss workforce needs and career opportunities across Arizona. Through this event, Arizona PBS promoted career awareness, workforce development resources, and information about employment opportunities and skills development to individuals and organizations interested in career and employment issues.

- 3/20/26 | Arizona PBS participated in a career and technical education event at Pima Joint Technical Education District (JTED) in Tucson through its American Graduate: Jobs Explained initiative. Arizona PBS presented information on career exploration, workforce readiness, and educational pathways designed to support students and job seekers pursuing careers in high-demand industries.
- 4/3/26 | Arizona PBS participated in the Invest in Girls event in partnership with the Arizona Council on Economic Education, providing career awareness and workforce development information to students. Through its American Graduate: Jobs Explained initiative, Arizona PBS highlighted educational and career pathways, workforce preparation resources, and opportunities in high-demand fields to support informed career planning and economic mobility.
- 3/10/26 | Arizona PBS participated in the AMA Workforce Event and Conference in Tucson, where the station's Social Media Specialist and Multimedia Reporters engaged with attendees to promote careers in broadcasting and digital media. Staff provided information about employment opportunities, career pathways, and the skills and experience needed for positions in broadcast journalism, content production, social media, and multimedia storytelling, supporting awareness of careers within the broadcasting industry.
- Ongoing | Station provides both internship opportunities for Horizon/Horizonte and part-time paid positions for the entire station, to ASU students with an interest in broadcast communications. Production positions include production crew for Arizona PBS Pledge Drives, studio productions (Horizon/Horizonte), and other local productions with responsibilities ranging from editor, videographer, and director. Other student positions include on-air promotions, operations, reception and graphic design.

Established an internship program designed to assist members of the community to acquire skills needed for broadcast employment.

Presently, Arizona PBS employs 53 part-time paid student workers and intern positions.

Staff Involved:

- Director, Fiscal & Business Operations
- HR Business Operations Specialist
- Fiscal Specialist, Education Outreach
- Executive Producers (2)
- Director, Marketing and Communications
- Instructional Tech Analyst
- Associate Director, Educational Outreach
- Program Manager, Educational Outreach
- Director of Sales & Business Development
- Executive Coordinator
- Coordinator Sr., Member Services
- Coordinator, Media Production
- Business Operations Managers (2)
- Manager, Central Sound at Arizona PBS
- Art Director
- Manager, Production

High school senior internship program:

- Arizona PBS is in its 7th year working with Phoenix Union High School District - Bioscience High School to have 2-5 interns complete volunteer work across the station multiple times a week for the full school year. High school seniors must complete 250 service hours prior to graduation.

*Participated in job banks, internet programs, and other programs designed to promote outreach generally (i.e., that are not primarily directed to providing notification of specific job vacancies).

- 7/1/25 | Arizona PBS launched Arizona Jobs Explained on Instagram and YouTube as part of the national Jobs Explained initiative funded by the Corporation for Public Broadcasting. Through this ongoing digital outreach program, Arizona PBS produced and distributed career-focused content featuring job search strategies, workforce readiness information, and career exploration resources for young Arizona job seekers. The program promotes awareness of employment opportunities and career pathways while providing accessible workforce development information through online platforms designed to reach broad and diverse audiences.
- Arizona PBS purchased the annual committee membership renewal for Executive Content Managers (ECM), providing content managers with continued access to professional development resources through Public Media Learns and other ECM benefits for the upcoming fiscal year. ECM's mission supports education and leadership development for public media content professionals, with a focus on promoting diversity, inclusion, and collaboration across platforms. Participation in this program enables Arizona PBS staff to strengthen leadership skills, elevate local voices, and contribute to the advancement of high-quality, inclusive content in the public media system.

- 6/11/25–6/13/25 | Arizona PBS and Central Sound participated in the League of American Orchestras National Conference to promote outreach and increase awareness of public media services available to orchestras, arts organizations, and related community partners. Staff engaged with conference attendees to share information about Central Sound’s audio production, recording, and media services, while fostering professional relationships within the arts and cultural community. Additionally, Classical Arizona PBS participated in a community food festival to promote public media programming and services, engage with community members, and increase awareness of educational, cultural, and arts-focused content available through Arizona PBS. These outreach activities supported community engagement and broadened awareness of public media resources among diverse audiences.
- Quarterly Throughout Reporting Period | Arizona PBS’s Education & Community Impact Unit participated in quarterly collaborative meetings with the City of Phoenix Housing Services Support Team. These meetings focused on workforce development initiatives, including identifying the needs of high-demand employers, supporting job seekers facing barriers to employment, and planning community engagement activities designed to connect individuals with career and workforce resources. Through its ongoing participation in this collaborative effort, Arizona PBS supported broad-based outreach, strengthened community partnerships, and contributed to workforce development and employment awareness initiatives serving diverse populations throughout the community.
- 5/16/25 | Arizona PBS staff members and senior leadership participated in an outreach visit to the Gila River Broadcasting Corporation and the Gila River Heritage Center to increase awareness of Indigenous media operations, community engagement practices, and the history and culture of the Gila River Indian Community. The visit provided opportunities for relationship-building, cultural learning, and the exchange of information regarding public media services and community storytelling. As a result of this engagement, Arizona PBS and Gila River Broadcasting Corporation began exploring a collaborative content initiative focused on the history of the Gila River Indian Community as part of America at 250 programming. This activity supported broad-based community outreach, strengthened relationships with underrepresented communities, and enhanced Arizona PBS's efforts to develop inclusive and culturally relevant content.

Established training programs designed to enable station personnel to acquire skills that could qualify them for higher level positions.

- 12/4/25 | Arizona PBS supported employee advancement and leadership development through the participation of its Director of Business Operations in the Arizona State University Leadership Program, a structured mentoring and professional development initiative designed to enhance leadership capacity among university personnel. Through the program, the Director developed leadership competencies, explored effective management practices, and gained tools, models, and strategies for organizational leadership and decision-making. This training opportunity strengthened skills necessary for higher-level leadership responsibilities and supported career growth and advancement within Arizona PBS and the broader university environment.
- 4/9/26 | Production Manager nominated by supervisor and selected to participate in 2026 Darden Core for Public Media program, a new national PBS partnership with UVA's Darden School of Business designed for first-time and frontline managers.
- Director of Educational Outreach served as an elected representative on the national PBS KIDS and Education Leadership Committee, participating in monthly virtual meetings and quarterly in-person sessions. Through this role, the Director engaged directly with leadership from PBS and the Corporation for Public Broadcasting (CPB) to contribute to process and product development, system-wide collaboration, and the exploration of funding opportunities. This ongoing involvement supports professional development and positions the staff members for advancement within the organization.
- Fall 2025 | Arizona PBS established a training and mentoring initiative for Arizona Horizon student employees, providing instruction on best practices for producing vertical video news content for digital and social media platforms. Station staff offered hands-on training in multi-platform content creation, digital storytelling, video production techniques, and audience engagement strategies. This initiative introduced a new training opportunity at Arizona PBS and is being considered as an ongoing program to support the professional development of Arizona State University Walter Cronkite School of Journalism and Mass Communication students. The program enhances participants' skills in emerging media formats and prepares them for advancement in broadcast, digital, and multimedia journalism careers.

Established a mentoring program for station personnel.

- 9/12/25 | AZPBS Hosted the Greater Phoenix Leadership Board for a half day conference. The entire station was invited to attend. Guest speakers included high level local Arizona executives that included Chris Camacho, CEO of GPEC.
- 6/16/25 | Arizona PBS established a mentoring and professional development opportunity in connection with the launch of the Jobs Explained initiative, led by WNET and funded by the Corporation for Public Broadcasting, through the hiring of a Social Media Video Specialist. As part of this role, the employee received ongoing guidance, training, and mentorship from experienced content and digital media professionals to develop skills in social media content creation, audience engagement, digital storytelling, and workforce-focused journalism. The position supports the production of informative and inspiring social media videos designed to connect young people with in-demand career opportunities in their local communities while providing structured professional development and career growth opportunities within Arizona PBS.
- 7/7/25 | Arizona PBS established a mentoring and professional development opportunity through the hiring of a Multimedia Journalist position funded by the Arizona Local News Foundation. This initiative was created to support collaborative public media efforts focused on reshaping the conversation around education in Arizona and highlighting post-secondary education solutions. Through the position, the employee received ongoing training, guidance, and mentorship from experienced newsroom and content professionals in reporting, multimedia storytelling, audience engagement, and solutions-focused journalism. The program supports workforce development by providing hands-on experience and professional growth opportunities while strengthening Arizona PBS's capacity to produce impactful education-focused content.

Participated in at least 4 events or programs sponsored by educational institutions relating to career opportunities in broadcasting.

- 01/01/26 | Assistant Director of Digital began participation in the ASU Emerging Supervisor Pathway mentoring program. This initiative is designed to equip aspiring supervisors with foundational knowledge of ASU operations, including Arizona PBS, and to prepare them for future leadership and promotional opportunities within the organization.
- 4/14/26 | Arizona PBS participated in Worlds of Work Pinal County, a career exploration event hosted by Central Arizona College. Through its Jobs Explained initiative, Arizona PBS presented information on job search strategies, workforce readiness, and career opportunities in high-demand industries throughout Arizona. The event provided students with exposure to career pathways, educational requirements, and workforce trends while promoting awareness of opportunities in media, communications, and related fields. Arizona PBS's participation supported career education efforts and strengthened connections between students, educators, and workforce development resources.
- 8/4/25, 8/13/25, 8/28/25, 9/10/25, 9/18/25, and 4/7/26 | Arizona PBS's Education & Community Impact Unit participated in career and workforce development outreach activities with higher education institutions including the University of Arizona, Central Arizona College, Arizona Western College, Coconino Community College, Eastern Arizona College, and Grand Canyon University. Regional Outreach Coordinators met with students, faculty, and academic advisors to provide information about the Arizona Early Childhood Workforce Registry and First Things First College Scholarship programs, highlighting educational pathways, workforce opportunities, and professional development resources available within the early childhood education field. These engagements connected students with career advancement resources and promoted awareness of employment opportunities within a critical workforce sector.
- 3/19/26, 4/18/26, and 4/25/26 | Arizona PBS Regional Outreach Coordinators also participated in early childhood education conferences and workforce development meetings hosted by Navajo Technical University, Northern Arizona University, and Arizona Western College. Through these events, Arizona PBS shared information regarding workforce development programs, educational resources, scholarship opportunities, and career pathways in early childhood education. Participation in these institution-sponsored events supported career exploration, professional growth, and workforce readiness among students, educators, and individuals pursuing careers in the field. 06/07/24 | Hosted students from Junior Achievement for an educational visit focused on careers in broadcasting. During the visit, staff members (Director of Sales, Account Exec, and General Manager) led a discussion highlighting various roles within the industry and the pathways to enter the field. The event provided students with valuable insight into broadcast operations and career opportunities in public media.

- 11/7/25 and 4/24/26 | Arizona PBS's Education & Community Impact Unit participated in workforce and career development outreach activities through quarterly meetings led by the Assistant Director of the Arizona Early Childhood Workforce Registry with representatives from institutions of higher education throughout Arizona and the region. These meetings provided information regarding the First Things First College Scholarship Program, which supports more than 600 early childhood educators pursuing associate and bachelor's degrees in early childhood education. Participating institutions included Arizona State University, Northern Arizona University, the University of Arizona, Arizona Western College, Central Arizona College, Chandler-Gilbert Community College, Cochise College, Coconino Community College, Diné College, Eastern Arizona College, Estrella Mountain Community College, Gateway Community College, Glendale Community College, Grand Canyon University, Mesa Community College, Mohave Community College, Navajo Technical University, Northland Pioneer College, Paradise Valley Community College, Phoenix College, Pima Community College, Prescott College, Purdue University Global, Rio Salado College, Scottsdale Community College, South Mountain Community College, University of Arizona Global Campus, University of Phoenix, Walden University, Western New Mexico University, and Yavapai College. Through these institution-sponsored meetings, Arizona PBS promoted educational pathways, scholarship opportunities, and career advancement resources that support workforce development and professional growth in the early childhood education field.

- 11/6/25 | Arizona PBS participated in the Arizona State University Career Exploration Fair, where the station's Events Manager engaged with students to provide information about career opportunities in broadcasting and public media. During the event, Arizona PBS shared information about employment pathways in areas such as production, journalism, content development, community engagement, events, and digital media, while also discussing internship and employment opportunities available at the station. Participation in this university-sponsored career fair supported career exploration and increased awareness of broadcasting professions among students interested in media and communications careers.
- 2/21/26 | ASU (Cronkite) Open Door
  - Manager, Production (engineering and tour)
  - Director, Educational Outreach
  - Assist Director, Educational Outreach
  - Digital Producer

Provided training to management level personnel on methods of ensuring equal employment opportunity and prevent discrimination.

- All paid Arizona PBS employees completed ASU – Your Duty to Report, Preventing harassment and discrimination, ASU Inclusive Communities and Arizona Public Service policy at the time of hire and Preventing Harassment and Discrimination ASU training must be renewed annually.
- 7/7/25, 9/13/25, and 5/5/26 | Arizona PBS provided equal employment opportunity and workplace inclusion training to management-level personnel through participation in industry conferences that included sessions focused on EEO compliance, diversity, equity, inclusion, and the prevention of workplace discrimination. Management staff attended the Public Media Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion and Multicultural Media Conference (PMDMC) on July 7, 2025, the National Educational Telecommunications Association (NETA) Conference on September 13, 2025, and the PBS Annual Meeting on May 5, 2026. Through conference workshops, breakout sessions, and professional development activities, participants received training on best practices for fostering inclusive workplaces, ensuring equal employment opportunity, addressing unconscious bias, and maintaining non-discriminatory hiring and employment practices. These training opportunities supported Arizona PBS's commitment to EEO compliance and equitable workplace policies.

- 1/9/26 | Arizona PBS supported employee advancement and leadership development through the participation of its Manager of Pledge & Membership in the TRAC Development Workshop, a professional training program focused on strategic fundraising, organizational leadership, and long-term sustainability planning. The workshop provided participants with opportunities to collaborate with industry peers, exchange best practices, and develop strategies for navigating evolving funding environments and strengthening fundraising operations. Participation in this training enhanced management and leadership competencies, expanded strategic planning skills, and supported professional growth and preparation for higher-level leadership responsibilities within Arizona PBS.
